FOREWORD

THE Board of Business Management and the Committee on the Year Book are pleased to present the 1947 edition of the Year Book to a waiting Church with their cordial greetings. Every effort has been put forth by the editor and the many contributors, by the advertisers and the Eden Publishing House, printers, to make the book available earlier than in former years and their efforts have been crowned with a measure of success. May it be cordially welcomed and well received by the offices, institutions and agencies of the Church, in the more than 2800 congregations, and in the homes of our almost 700,000 members! As a compendium of ready and worthwhile information and as a record of the growth and development of the Church during the year 1945, the Year Book should be regarded as one of the indispensables by all who have the welfare of the Kingdom at heart.

An alphabetical index to the contents will be found on the inside of the front cover. Grateful mention is again made of the splendid cooperation of our advertisers. The appeals of our Church-related institutions, and the list of commercial concerns, which will serve as a convenient "buyers' guide," are most heartily commended to everyone.

Days		DAILY BIBLE LESSON		DENOMINATIONAL EMPHASIS
Week	Month			January: International Missions
				"For he is our peace, he who has made both of us a unity and destroyed the barrier which kept us apart."
W	1	Psalm 103	In its international mission, the Church faces an unparalleled opportunity today in the midst of great destruction and much hopelessness. But it does not face it alone, for the Christ whom it would share with others, must be its own source of strength and vision.
T	2	Isa. 13: 6-22
F	3	Isa. 14: 3-20
S	4	Isa. 24: 1-6
1] The Second Sunday after Christmas				1 Peter 4: 12-19 Matthew 2: 13-23	James 4: 13, 17 Matthew 16: 1-4
S	5	Psalm 67
The Epiphany of Our Lord				Isaiah 60: 1-6 Matthew 2: 1-12	2 Cor. 4: 3-6 Matthew 3: 13-17
M	6	Psalm 97	There are two trends within the many branches of the Church today. The first is toward a new unity amidst different religious organizations and personal points of view. The second trend is one of surmounting the geographical, racial, and national barriers that have divided humanity in its spiritual life. It dare not be otherwise "for He has made both of us a unity, and destroyed the barriers which kept us apart."
T	7	Isa. 26: 1-16
W	8	Isa. 31: 1-7
T	9	Isa. 33: 5-10
F	10	Isa. 35
S	11	Isa. 38: 1-20
2] The First Sunday after the Epiphany				Romans 12: 1-5 Luke 2: 41-52	2 Cor. 6: 14-7: 1 1 John 1: 35-42
S	12	Psalm 72	Let us here record with humble praise the words of our fellow Christians in Japan as proclaimed last Pentecost Sunday: "We, the people of Japan, feel deeply responsible for this great war just ended. Especially we, who profess the Gospel of Peace, do express our profound reflection, confession, and repentance. We believe, however, our Heavenly Father of infinite love and forgiveness will grant us grace to find a new way of life and the renewal of faith."
M	13	Isa. 40: 1-17
T	14	Isa. 40: 18-31
W	15	Isa. 42: 1-16
T	16	Isa. 43: 1-12
F	17	Isa. 45: 5-25
S	18	Isa. 49: 1-23
3] The Second Sunday after the Epiphany				Romans 12: 6-16 John 2: 1-11	1 Cor. 2: 6-16 John 1: 43-51
S	19	Psalm 47	In the light of the Cross, these same noble Christians continued to declare that "through the consolidation of all Christian forces in Japan, and taking upon ourselves the burden and agony of our war-stricken compatriots, we have firmly resolved to give ourselves in service to them by sharing their hunger, their bewilderment and their sorrow, and to give them hope, faith, and love in Christ."
M	20	Isa. 50: 4-10
T	21	Isa. 51: 1-16
W	22	Isa. 52: 1-10
T	23	Isa. 53
F	24	Isa. 55
S	25	Isa. 58: 8-14
4] The Last Sunday after the Epiphany The Transfiguration of Our Lord				2 Peter 1: 16-21 Matthew 17: 1-9	2 Cor. 3: 12-18 John 5: 39-47
S	26	Psalm 27	The history of our times is rich in examples of great faith and devotion by Christ's disciples in the "younger churches" of many lands. These persons are literally the spiritual offspring of our missionaries, past and present. We thank God with joy for their witness to the saving power of Christ in lands so deserving of an adequate witness.
M	27	Isa. 59: 1-18
T	28	Isa. 60: 1-7
W	29	Isa. 61: 1-9
T	30	Isa. 64
F	31	Isa. 66: 1-14

Week	Month	Days	DAILY BIBLE LESSON	DENOMINATIONAL EMPHASIS February: Christian Stewardship "According as each hath received a gift, ministering it among yourselves, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God."
S	1		John 1: 19-34	The love of Christ is the motive for Christian Stewardship.

5] Septuagesima Sunday1 Cor. 9: 24-10: 5
Matthew 20: 1-16Phil. 1: 27-2: 4
Luke 10: 38-42

S	2	Psalm 20	When a person accepts Christ's death as God's atonement for his sin, there must be a definite change in his attitude to all of life, if his faith is real. Thenceforth he thinks of himself as Christ's steward. He does not completely possess any of the benefits of the cross until he shares them. What he does not use, he loses. He is more concerned with making a life than a living. He and all he has are God's in Christ.
M	3	John 1: 35-51
T	4	John 2: 1-12
W	5	John 2: 13-25
T	6	John 3: 1-21
F	7	John 3: 23-36
S	8	John 4: 1-42

6] Sexagesima Sunday2 Cor. 11: 19-12: 9
Luke 8: 4-15Phil. 1: 2-21
John 11: 20-27

S	9	Psalm 71	In the life of every Christian, all real spiritual progress is determined by the degree of his willingness to crown Jesus Lord of his time, talents and possessions and to render to God a faithful Stewardship of the life God has entrusted to him. A person may give of his gifts without giving himself, but no man can give himself to God without also dedicating to God what he has. He has only what he thus gives.
M	10	John 4: 43-54
T	11	Matt. 4: 12-25
W	12	John 5: 1-29

Luke 18: 31-431 Cor. 1: 21-31
Mark 10: 35-45

S	16	Psalm 19	It is the Protestant's belief that salvation is by faith, a gift of the grace of God. It cannot be earned by man; Jesus achieved it. After man lays hold on it by faith, his entire attitude will

S	23	Psalm 62	The United Stewardship Enlistment next month aims at renewing, by all the members of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, the promises made by them when they knelt at the altar for confirmation. Then and there they assumed responsibility, a neglect of which imperils their Christianity. Help yourself to a revitalized Church through this Stewardship Enlistment.

Days	DAILY BIBLE LESSON	DENOMINATIONAL EMPHASIS March: Evangelism "Neither is there any other Name under heaven that is given among men, wherein we must be saved."
S 1	Matt. 12: 10-21	"And Ye Shall Be My Witnesses"
9]	The Second Sunday in Lent (Reminiscere)	1 Thess. 4: 1-7 1 John 2: 12-17 Matthew 15: 21-28 Luke 10: 17-20
S 2	Psalm 32	This was the parting charge Jesus gave to his followers. They had been associated with him for many months and had come to know him as Saviour and Lord. The main objective of his mission on earth was to bring men into a saving relationship to God. His objective now was to become the consuming passion of his followers. To win converts to Christ is the essential task of the Christian mission.
M 3	Matt. 12: 46-50
T 4	Matt. 13: 24-30

T 6	Matt. 13: 44-53
F 7	Matt. 8: 18-27
S 8	Matt. 9: 10-17
10]	The Third Sunday in Lent (Oculi)	Ephesians 5: 1-9 1 Peter 1: 13-16 Luke 11: 14-26 Luke 9: 51-56
S 9	Psalm 34	To be a witness is to bear faithful testimony to that which one has seen, heard, or experienced. We say that we know Christ; we have experienced his redeeming grace, and found in him the way, the truth and the life. He has become for us the supreme reality of our existence here, and our certain hope of immortality hereafter. It is for us to share this "good news" with friends and neighbors,—to bring and introduce others to Jesus.

11]	The Fourth Sunday in Lent (Laetare)	Romans 5: 1-11 2 Cor. 7: 4-10 John 6: 1-15 John 6: 47-57
S 16	Psalm 116	The early Christians were aggressive evangelists. They went out into the highways and byways, and courageously bore testimony by word and deed and life to the faith they possessed. Is there any record in our lives of a deep concern for lost people everywhere comparable to that which drove those early Christians out to belt the world with the Gospel? Dare we withhold the knowledge of the Great Physician and Saviour of men from those who desperately need him?
M 17	Matt. 14: 22-36
T 18	John 6: 15-21
W 19	Matt. 15: 1-20

12]	The Fifth Sunday in Lent Passion Sunday (Judica)	Hebrews 9: 11-15 1 Peter 1: 17-25 John 8: 46-59 John 13: 31-35
S 23	Psalm 43	Several things will result from our faithful witnessing. New converts will be won to Christ and His Church. Our own faith will become more meaningful to us and our lives spiritually enriched. The Church will become an influence for righteousness, and the moral and spiritual tone of the community lifted to new heights. Above all, we shall become channels for the release of God's power unto the regeneration and redemption of humanity.

Scripture affirms that He was seen by Peter, by the twelve, by 500 brethren at once, by James, by all the apostles, and by Paul. S	4		Psalm 98	The ideal home is a training center, where parents encourage their children, by precept and example, to be honest, kind, truthful, tolerant, and loving toward their fellowmen. The ideal home is a Christian home, where God is honored and worshipped, where Christ is recognized as the head of the family, "the unseen guest at every meal, the silent listener to every conversation." In a Christian home the spirit of Christ prevails in all relationships.

22] Trinity Sunday The Festival of the Holy Trinity

Romans 11:33-36
John 3:1-15Ephesians 1:3-14
Matthew 28:16-20

S	1	Psalm 99	According to Charles Clayton Morrison, any religion that offers itself as an adequate faith for mankind in an atomic age must pass three tests: (1) It must possess the resources for creating world community. (2) It must be able to live side by side with science in mutual understanding and respect. (3) It must have a sound view of man and of man's nature. Christianity, adds Mr. Morrison, meets all three tests.

23] The First Sunday after Trinity

1 John 4:16-21
Luke 16:19-31Acts 4:32-35
Matthew 13:31-35

S	8	Psalm 73	"Go ye into all the world . . ." has become an actuality which anyone can observe. The world church is the one great fact of our time. "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" is a command of our Lord that makes real scientific progress an ally of the Christian faith. "Ye are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus" does not deny man's sinfulness, but points to his divine possibilities.

24] The Second Sunday after Trinity

1 John 3:13-18
Luke 14:16-24Romans 10:1-15
Matthew 9:9-13

S	15	Psalm 11	It is the task of Christian education to help our boys and girls, our men and our women become aware of the adequacy of the Christian faith for our time. This is no time to cut corners in our program of Christian education. It is a time, rather, to venture forth with new vision and new courage into new areas of endeavor. Thus shall the faith which made our fathers strong become for us a certain confidence.

1 Peter 5:6-11
Luke 15:1-10Acts 3:1-16
Luke 15:11-32

S	22	Psalm 112	The unwillingness of man to develop fully his spiritual potentialities is one of the great problems that Christian educators face, for it is in the area of spiritual values that man has his most unique contribution to make. Imagine what a different world this would be if the 600 million Christians in it would actually try to learn what is involved in living the Christian life! Christian education is vitally concerned about achieving this objective.

T	1	2	Cor. 1	The Christian has a definite duty and responsibility toward the nation, as well as toward God. S	6	Psalm 121	A Christian citizen will strive to rid himself of race prejudice, so that liberty and justice for all, included in the pledge to the flag, recited regularly by our school children, may not be merely a beautiful ideal, but a genuine reality for all minority groups. A Christian citizen will seek to promote the highest good of all the people, and not think only in terms of his own welfare, or that of his group or class.

after TrinityRomans 6: 3-11
Matthew 5: 20-26Acts 8: 26-38
Matthew 21: 28-32

S	13	Psalm 1	If business men, financiers, farmers, professional men, C. I. O., and A. F. of L. members cooperate in the spirit of Christian brotherhood our nation may reach unprecedented heights of prosperity. On the other hand, if every group thinks only in terms of its own welfare, our nation may go down into ruin. Jesus taught that only he who loses his life for his brother's sake can be saved. Individual advantages must be given up for the sake of others.

Matthew 9: 35-381 Timothy 6: 6-12
Mark 4: 26-29

S	20	Psalm 18: 1-20	Unlimited national sovereignty has been defined as a form of idolatry. This idea must be given up if there is to be real hope of world peace. Just as the states of the United States of America gave up some of their powers in order that this glorious union might come into existence, so must extreme nationalism be given up. Mankind is one. The whole world is now a neighborhood. Let every Christian help to make it a brotherhood.

31] The Ninth Sunday after Trinity			1 Cor. 10:6-13 Luke 15:11-24 Acts 17:16-34 Matthew 13:44-46
S	3	Psalm 115	The summer months offer countless opportunities to church leaders. They are able to rest from their arduous tasks, and build up a reserve for the more strenuous months to come. At the same time the comparative leisure which these months afford will be spent by wise leaders in making plans for the future. Books for which there was no time can now be read. S	10	Psalm 147	Following the example of our Lord, who sought the solitude of mountains, the invigorating out-door air, and the refreshing coolness of sea and lake, our Church has been providing summer camps and training schools throughout the nation. Wholesome recreation and spiritual training are provided for our young people, who return to their homes equipped for far greater usefulness. S	17	Psalm 33	Young men are needed today for the Christian ministry, and for service as missionaries. Young men are needed as parish workers, directors of Christian Education, and also as missionaries. Our summer camps and schools provide a splendid opportunity for preliminary training for these young people, and to awaken in others a desire for full-time Christian service. For all who enroll our summer schools and camps are of incalculable value in developing Christian purposes.

S	24	Psalm 139	Those who are not fortunate enough to have the privilege of attending a school or enrolling at a camp, may still take advantage of the opportunities which summer affords. Out-door exercise will invigorate the body, playing games will refresh the tired brain, and communing with the great God of nature will uplift the soul. Thus may the summer months prove to be among the most valuable of the year, recreating body, mind, and spirit.

SEPTEMBER, 1947

30 Days

Day	Week	Month	DAILY BIBLE LESSON	DENOMINATIONAL EMPHASIS September: Ministerial Pensions and Relief "Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the Gospel should also live of the Gospel."
M	1		Job 1: 1-21	The message of Labor Day stresses the dignity of labor and its vital place in the world of today. The emphasis is usually placed upon the physical occupations and so-called trades, whereas it is equally essential to stress the importance of those who labor in the professions doing mental and spiritual work.

after TrinityGal. 5: 16-24
Luke 17: 11-191 Timothy 1: 12-17
John 5: 1-14

S	7	Psalm 92	The chief laborer in the Church is the minister. His task necessitates much careful preparation, for it includes the preaching of the Gospel, the guidance of youth, church administration, home-visitation, consultations, problems of personal salvation and social adjustment, and the continual ministry of prayer, cheer, and comfort. A pastor sees life at its most vital cross-section and gives his best to make that life more abundant in Christ.

37] The Fifteenth Sunday
after TrinityGal. 5: 25-6: 10
Matthew 6: 24-342 Thess. 3: 6-13
John 11: 1-11

S	14	Psalm 8	Most labor has personal gain as its objective. The minister seeks the salvation of humankind and the building of the kingdom of God as his major goal. This ideal is perhaps the reason why he has been so underpaid. It is a sad accusation that the Church has failed to meet her obligation of adequate compensation to him. This unworthy example has mitigated the impact of the Church's message of service and justice on Labor Day.

Matthew 11: 25-30

S	21	Psalm 146	One inevitable result of a poorly paid ministry is dependence upon the Church when retirement comes. Ministerial Pension and Relief has sought to meet this need of our aged pastors and pastors' widows, but the sums paid are inadequate and largely dependent upon the Apportionment of the Church. At the present time benefits are paid to almost one thousand persons.

S	2	Psalm 119: 1-12	The Kingdom Roll Call Period for 1947—Nov. 16 to Dec. 7. The Kingdom Roll Call with the visitation of every family, opens the way for a larger participation in the support of the work of Christ at home and abroad. In one of its forms, the Roll Call should be an annual event in the normal life of every congregation. The Church is the field in which we must practice being Christians—there by our attendance, our prayers, our time, our money to build the Kingdom of God.

S	23	Psalm 90	The Kingdom Roll Call furnishes an expressional release for the love of Christ that is in us. The core of the Roll Call is not money but giving. With no compulsion, our promised gifts to Christ through the Roll Call become "freewill offerings." We give "not grudgingly or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful (hilarious) giver." Another Year for God

PRESIDENT L. W. GOEBEL, D.D., LL.D.

A CAREFUL reading and close study of the Year Book will reveal that it contains a wealth of information every interested member of the Evangelical and Reformed Church will wish to possess. It carries the register of those who have dedicated their lives to full-time service in the Church, but it also records the total membership of every congregation, Synod, and the entire denomination. It sets forth the growth of the Church, and thus is a record of her achievements. It outlines her program and sets forth the agencies through which it is carried forward. Its statistical pages are, in short, a report of the accomplishments of the Church as a whole and of every arm of her work.

Significantly, nearly at the very beginning is found a calendar of the days, weeks and months of the year. However, this is more than a barren setting forth of the dates for 1947. Over against each week is set a statement of Christian purposes. Thus it declares that the Church and her members propose to dedicate the days of the new year to the advancement of their own Christian life and the entire Christian enterprise. As this new issue of the Year Book makes its appearance, therefore, it is not satisfied to remind us that "another year is dawning." It challenges us to add, as does the writer of the hymn from which we have quoted, "Another year for Thee." So, indeed, shall it be.

Facing another year many will find themselves inclined to long for the good old days of a bygone era. This nostalgic harking back to yesteryear, which seems to us now to have had fewer pressing problems and a greater measure of order and security, is not worthy of a Christian. To be sure we are living in a confused and troubled day, and yet it is the only day of opportunity which is ours. As Christians we are confident that God intends it to be for us a day of rich spiritual blessings. This it can be only if we fearlessly and faithfully put our hands to the tasks which are ours and make the best use of our time. Anxiety and fear may cause us to assume a fatalistic attitude toward the events of our time and prevent us from playing our part well, thus robbing us of every measure of inner contentment and joy. If, however, we lose ourselves in the thought that this is another year of blessed opportunity for service unto God and His Church, I know that we will find renewed confidence and strength to go our way with faith, hope and assurance. More than this God requires of no man.

As Christians we know, too, that time spent rightly in the service of God and His Church is time spent with profit for the fellowman. We recall that Jesus said of the second of the great commandments, "And this is equal unto it." The two commandments are really one. In the measure in which we love and, therefore, serve our fellowmen, in that measure do we give evidence that we love and are willing to serve God.

Modern day Christians have never been confronted with so glorious an opportunity for service as in the present hour. Millions in Asia and Europe, as well as other areas of the globe, are turning wistful eyes toward America in general and toward you and me as Christians in particular. This year shall find us continuing and expanding our service of love toward our brothers at home and abroad. Especially shall it find us eager and prepared to carry the message of the Christian gospel to the unchurched millions of our own nation, and to the countless multitudes in other lands who have never come in contact with its life-renewing power. Another year of service means accepting Christ's challenge to be faithful stewards of His manifold grace. Thus will this year abound for us in mercy and blessing.

Our Church Answers the Call for Help

REV. HENRY C. KOCH, EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, Commission on World Service

To many people in this country war is a matter of history and only the occasional inconveniences and unpleasantnesses of either exorbitant prices or unobtainable goods serve to remind us of a war that, aside from the tragic cost in human lives, meant little to the American people in actual suffering. But as the people of war-ravaged countries start laboriously to rebuild their shattered homes and lives, they know another story. They need help—help not only in the form of clothing and food—but the strong helping hand of Christian brotherhood to give them strength to face the future. That helping hand has come through the churches in America. The churches of our denomination have responded nobly, many of them doubling and even trebling their quota.

Personal gifts of love and sympathy are going out from America, east and west, to the suffering people in war-devastated countries of Europe and Asia. A women's group sews and assembles a bundle of baby clothes . . . a farmer gives a sack of wheat . . . a little boy on the farm raises a heifer calf to send . . . an old man contributes his warm new dressing gown. Through the united program of the churches the hungry are being fed, the needy clothed, the sore-in-heart comforted. A recent release from Church World Service, the central relief agency of United Protestantism, shows that there are eleven million orphans in Europe—thirty million hungry children in varying degrees of malnutrition or actual starvation. In Asia this figure must be multiplied many times. These children need powdered milk, food concentrates and vitamin tablets to build up their skeleton-like little bodies. Hundreds of thousands of displaced persons continue to be shuffled from one country to another, and the only touch of compassion that comes to them is the ministry of the Church and Church inspired agencies which endeavor to bring comfort through material gifts and acts of friendliness. A small number of these people, a far too limited quota, are permitted to come to this country provided responsible agencies and people will supply assuring affidavits for their support. Church committees have given long hours over many days working tirelessly to secure the above provisions, and thereby provide a new ray of hope to some who are fortunate enough to be on the list. Our Church through its gifts has aided in this Christian work.

Material Aid Makes Our Help Concrete

Due to the fact that only a limited amount of supplies could be bought in Europe, and almost none in Asia, and due to the fact that gifts in kind were in some instances more readily obtainable than cash, the program of material aid received increasing emphasis during the past few years. It will remain a prominent factor until relief moves into the program of rehabilitation when the emphasis will need to be shifted. The extent to which material aid has occupied our concern is evident from the following quotations taken from the report of our Material Aid director, Mr. Loren Walters:

300,000 pounds of canned goods and clothing distributed through Church World Service to some twenty countries.

Thousands of garments sewn and knitted for relief agencies.

Two hundred heifers contributed and shipped abroad through Heifer Project Committee. Shipped to France, Belgium, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Italy and Greece. No shipments could be made to Germany due to restrictions.

160 milk goats were shipped to Europe through UNRRA. This project was initiated through the interest of our missionary to the Ozarks, Rev. Vincent Bucher.

15 carloads of cereal. 900,000 pounds were shipped to Germany, Hungary and Poland.

Heifers being loaded for shipment to Europe where they replenish the much depleted stock and provide milk for undernourished children.

In addition to the above smaller projects such as "togs in towel," button bags, Christmas packages, enlisted the interest of many church groups.

There are eight United Service Centers—warehouses where food is gathered and prepared for shipment and where used clothing is baled for shipment. The warehouses under sponsorship of Church World Service have local committees responsible for operation on the local level. The warehouse in St. Louis, Missouri, is locally under the joint sponsorship of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and the Southern and Northern Baptist Churches. Our director of Material Aid, Mr. Walters, was largely responsible for the selection of the warehouse and the employing of personnel and establishing the pattern of operation. It promises to become one of the major centers for clothing and food collection in the United States.

The above reference to material aid is only a part of our total material aid program, that portion for which we are directly responsible. Church World Service, Incorporated, receives additional funds from us for their material aid program. From time to time individual projects are financed by us, as for instance one gift of Ten Thousand Dollars, made by an unknown donor, was applied to the purchase of 10,000 pairs of shoes which were shipped to Hilfswerk in Stuttgart for distribution by them in Germany.

From Relief to Rehabilitation

There is really no way of separating the two. From the very beginning some of our funds have gone for rehabilitation, such as the purchase of barracks chapels, building children's schools and hospitals, establishing funds for the training of church leaders. The relief needs, however, were so great and so many funds came in designated for relief that we felt we were keeping faith with the wishes of our people by allocating a good deal for relief. From every source evidences underscored the great need for food, clothing and medicines, far beyond anything we had anticipated.

The time has come when the need increases in the direction of spiritual rehabilitation. Barracks churches symbolize better than anything else this attempt to restore means of spiritual resources. Says Mrs. Culver, editorial secretary of Church World Service, Incorporated, "Centers of the rebuilding communities of Europe are the barracks churches—unpretentious structures of simple dignity which serve as a symbol of the ever-enduring spirit of those who have lost all their earthly possessions." One allocation from funds contributed to Church World Service, Incorporated, to the amount of $100,000.00, was for this purpose.

Transportation problems are extremely acute. Pastors seeking to make contact with dispersed families, desperately in need of the pastor's counsel, find it difficult to get about. Bicycles have been purchased for these pastors, and letters of gratitude evidence the service rendered through these gifts. Books and literature are needed—theological literature for pastors and students training for the ministry is a crying need. Strong leadership is needed for youth groups springing up everywhere. The field is ripe for harvest. But the harvesting will require consecrated, well-trained leaders to challenge the groups—sheep without a shepherd.

Bibles are among the most earnest requests. "During the last months of the war," reads a recent report from the American Bible Society, "when German prisoners of war rose to large numbers the Society issued to chaplains and others 43,040 Bibles, 505,377 Testaments, and 1,168,844 Portions to prisoners of war. Since that time, since the change in response to appeals from American chaplains, from the World Council of Churches, and others, the Society issued in the latter half of 1945, 4,800 Bibles, 417,700 Testaments, 572,000 Portions. There are under production to be shipped as soon as possible in 1946, 390,000 Bibles, 600,000 Testaments, and 500,000 Portions. . . . No other place than America and no other people than the Americans can provide the Book which the German churches, as the most hopeful constructive force in Germany, can use to the greatest advantage at this time." Dr. Simon of the Church Council in Munich reports, "500,000 people have been bombed, they are without Bibles; most of the refugees and displaced persons, if not all, are without Bibles or New Testaments. That means that at least 1,200,000 Protestants have no Scriptures."

Swiss customs officials seal boxcar of relief goods from World Council of Churches as Prof. Carl E. Schneider, E and R representative, looks on.

United Church Service Center in St. Louis is one of eight such Centers sponsored by the Church World Service, Incorporated, for the preparing of food and clothing for needy countries.

The Messenger has already carried accounts of requests from German church leaders coming to us through Dr. Goebel as a result of his visit to Europe. The Commission has agreed to purchase sufficient cellulose for the printing of five hundred thousand German hymnals. A United Church in Germany with membership in the World Council of Churches would go a far way toward establishing the initial relationships basic to accepting Germany into the family of nations. The above referred to hymnal is to be a hymnal of the United Church. Thus we are contributing to an essential means for spiritual rehabilitation. Another project suggested is an Ecumenical Center in Germany to which our Commission has agreed to contribute five thousand dollars annually for the next five years.

Dr. Carl E. Schneider, Professor at Eden Theological Seminary, is making valuable contacts for us in Europe. He is loaned by us to the World Council of Churches with headquarters in Geneva. Dr. Schneider is eminently qualified to contribute valuable guidance in the study of needs both in Hungary and Germany looking toward the spiritual rehabilitation of those countries.

Our understanding of the needs of Hungary has been greatly helped by the visit to this country of Dr. Bela Vasady on leave from the Reformed Theological Faculty of the University of Debrechen. Dr. Vasady received his theological training at Princeton Theological Seminary and our Central Theological Seminary. He spoke before many of our churches and at many of our Synods.

Rehabilitation in Asia

The distribution of funds to Asia is under the direction of our Board of International Missions and we quote from a report by Dr. F. A. Goetsch regarding the needs in Asia:

JAPAN

"The bombing raid carried out on the night of July 9, 1945, cut a swath two miles broad through the center of the city of Sendai where the principal institutions of our mission in Japan were located. Of the nine buildings belonging to the Miyagi College, only two remain intact. Of the thirteen or more buildings of North Japan College, again only two remain intact. A number of our missionary residences were destroyed as were also a number of our chapels in Sendai. A report of the losses sustained in the outlying cities is not yet available and will not be until Dr. Kriete can gather the information for us.

CHINA

Dr. Keller writes that only 15% of what was the city of Yoyang is left and is in a badly shaken condition.

Two missionary homes in Yoyang are completely destroyed as were also the homes of three teachers and ten servant houses. A good part of Ziemer Girls School has been destroyed, only the western half being fit for use. Every other building on the Ziemer Girls School Compound was destroyed. Several of our chapels were destroyed. We do not yet have a record of properties which were destroyed in outstations, for this information is being only gradually accumulated.

One of the great needs which faces us is the rehabilitation of personnel: pastors, teachers in our schools and other members of the Christian staff who are undernourished, worn out, and, in many cases, almost nervous wrecks after having passed through the bombings which were so frequent in that borderland of battle in which our mission stations lie. Interdenominational institutions, too, are greatly in need of rehabilitation and reconstruction. The Church of Christ in China is requesting help from American and British Churches for the rehabilitation of personnel and the reconstruction of their headquarters. The same is true of the National Christian Council, Hua Chung College in which we are a cooperative mission, and finally, the Christian Colleges of China which ought to be maintained as the bulwarks of Christian thought and learning in the great country of China."

Dr. Carl D. Kriete is now in Japan. Our Church was honored when the Japan Committee selected him to go with several other former missionaries and make a study of needs, and lay plans for the rehabilitation of our work there.

An adequate program of rehabilitation in Asia will call for much sacrificial giving on the part of our people. Opportunities of reinforcing our missionary message with actual material aid are great and most fortunate. We must not fail.

Men in Service—Chaplains—Postwar Adjustment

Services in these fields are rapidly being curtailed. But a great task remains. It would be most unfortunate if our Church should withdraw its ministry before it has completed its task. Many men are now first entering the armed services and will need the friendship and support of the Church. They are subject to grave temptations. Their opportunity is unusual. The Church must guide them to it. Many thousands of men are still hospitalized and many will remain in hospitals for the remainder of their days. The Church has a solemn obligation to them.

This composite photo illustrates how church services are being conducted in war-ravaged areas of Europe. The army barracks donated by the World Council of Churches replaces the ruined church. A parish worker who conducts religious education services lives in rear of barracks.

Chaplains continue to serve under difficult conditions. They need literature, altar supplies, and other aids. Above all they need our prayers and our interest. Rev. F. L. Fesperman, a former missionary and more recently a chaplain, serves as director of our work with service personnel and chaplains.

Millions of people continue on the move. It will be some time before these millions become established. Until then the Church has a mission. Our nation cannot assist in the healing of the nations as long as it neglects its own.

* * * * *

Emergency World Service is now a major enterprise of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. In 1942 War Emergency Relief came into existence in answer to our Church's demand to share in the relief and rehabilitation of war devastated countries. That year our members contributed the total of $125,807.00 for relief. Each year as the need has become greater our giving has correspondingly increased until even the goal of Two Million Dollars for the triennium 1944 to 1947 seems entirely inadequate to give aid to needy peoples throughout the world.

Emergency World Service has not been all giving. We are being twice blest by the blessings we are sharing. America is in danger of losing its soul. Victory is always a dangerous thing. Power may vitiate the best of motives. The Church with its message of repentance cannot live in a vacuum. It must be a part of the world to which it speaks.

"Today's Best Buy Is a Child Life"

I saw the above caption over a paragraph from the pen of Mrs. Elsie Thomas Culver. It set me to thinking. We stand in line to buy shirts, to get a chance at a pair of nylons. How anxious are we to invest our lives in a child? Investing our lives in them makes them one with us. "How shall we come before the Father's throne without them?" Or shall we?

The United Stewardship Enlistment — 1946-1947 Denominational Emphasis

REV. JAMES W. BRIGHT, DIRECTOR

What Shall I Render?

While the several other interests will be certain to receive their proper seasonal emphasis during the Church Year, the denominational emphasis from now to March, 1947, is by General Synodical decree the United Stewardship Enlistment. Our denomination is but one of thirty-two major ecclesiastical bodies which have adopted this project. It is properly so, for in a world which has gone madly after things as the very end of its existence, and which is thereby threatened with an end to its very existence, there is but one solution—the one Jesus taught and practiced: (1) recognizing life with all its benefits as the evidence of a living, loving, heavenly Father's devotion to the children He created; provides for, and saves; and (2) Jesus' ready response to that undying love, in a life lived as only a true steward can live it. This is Stewardship in the original New Testament sense.

He First Loved Us!

This world needs desperately to recover a true understanding of this word, Stewardship, and of its real implications. Practically all efforts on behalf of the Kingdom depend for their motivation upon the aforementioned two principles of Stewardship. Only he who is conscious of God's free gift of salvation can respond by seeking to win others to Christ. Others find no need, no urgency to do so.

Only a true steward of the Lord Jesus Christ can be an effective evangelist. A lack of real stewards may account for the disturbing fact that in 1944, for example, it required 15 average Evangelical and Reformed Church members 365 days, one whole year, to win one new member. In the field of service rendered in the local congregation, an average of 21% of the members does all the constructive work. Thank God for the 21%; but where are the other 79%? And among this latter 79% are found some of the ablest people in the Church, but who nevertheless refuse to assume their share of responsibility. What is lacking? They are not stewards of the manifold grace of God. Only as they become such stewards will they find the inner compulsion to invest their talents in Kingdom work. In the great missionary projects of our denomination we find the fields white unto harvest, and even now the laborers are too few. There are still hundreds of vacant pulpits in our Evangelical and Reformed Church, and not enough men to fill them. It is those who recognize the truth of John 3:16 and Romans 10:13-15 who will accept the commission given in Matthew 28:19, 20.

Him Only Shalt Thou Serve

There are many complaints and serious questionings upon the lean 35% average of regular worshippers amongst Protestant church members. Is it possible that failure to recognize God as the source of all blessings, including salvation, may be the chief underlying cause for the complacency and indifference of the other 65%? When people feel themselves self-sufficient what need is there in their hearts to worship a God whom they have not yet discovered to be very real? They constitute themselves the big "I AM." There is for them no apparent reason or need to worship God, nor to serve Him, for the plain, unequivocal reason that they feel no responsibility so to do; they are not stewards! They need to be awakened to the truth that all they are and all of worth that they ever hope to be, originates in God. Only then will they be quick to respond in a life of Christian Stewardship.

By Their Fruits

Not a word has thus far been said about money, for the obvious reason that when people recognize their lives to be a trust from God, they will withhold nothing from Him. They will become soul winners; they will support the many causes of the Church; they will lend their talents to Christian work; they will find worship essential to their very existence; they will pray and listen for God's voice, and their attitudes to people of different races, nationalities, and classes will be Christ-like. A genuine steward of the grace of God will give generously, proportionately, systematically of himself and of his possessions. His one great obsession will be the bringing of a broken world to the feet of a healing Christ! His meat and his drink is to do the will of the Father in heaven.

The Objective

Every cause the Church represents stands to profit from a unanimous participation in the United Stewardship Enlistment. The goal is to enroll every member of every congregation in a rededication of life to the ideals and the eternal purpose of God in Jesus Christ. This involves a re-study of Article II, Section 9, of the Constitution of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, and an ardent application of time, talent, material possessions, indeed all of life, to the attainment of the lofty standards set forth therein: "Members of the Church shall live sober, righteous, and godly lives and labor faithfully to bring others to Christ. They shall take an active part in the life and work of the Church. This shall include regular attendance at divine worship; devout use of the Holy Sacraments; diligent observance of private devotions; liberal financial and moral support toward her maintenance and her benevolent undertakings; obedience to her established law and authorities; untiring zeal in bringing the unchurched under her influence; and sincere endeavor to apply the teachings of Jesus to all human relationships. Parents shall provide adequate Christian training for their entire household." Any person who conscientiously strives to fulfil these obligations will feel privileged in being a part of the great Evangelical and Reformed Church!

The Plan at Work in Your Church

The Committee on Stewardship appointed a part-time director, and together they have promoted the United Stewardship Enlistment through a detailed correlation of the efforts of the several Boards and Commissions and of the Women's Guild and the Church-men's Brotherhood. Synodical Committees are at work, endeavoring to set up in every local congregation a Committee on Stewardship Enlistment. A model set-up for the local congregation is shown in the graph following this article. Numerous articles in our publications, literature and letters to pastors, suggested bibliographies, study courses—indeed every available means known and practicable—are being employed in preparing for the enlistment. Several alert Synodical Committees have set up very ambitious programs which include regional meetings, Stewardship Days in Sunday Schools, monthly Stewardship programs in Youth Fellowships, Women's Guilds and Men's Brotherhood's special programs, district rallies for leaders, reading circles, "every congregation participating in the 25th Stewardship Essay and Poster Contest," cottage prayer meetings, discussion groups, and a 100% visitation of every member of every congregation. Every Synod and every congregation can do likewise if they will.

Stewardship Essay and Poster Contest

The 25th Annual Stewardship Essay and Poster Contest will be held during the 1947 Stewardship Emphasis period, beginning on January 15th and closing March 15th. In this Silver Anniversary Year this educational project will find many new and old participants. It is interesting to note how many prominent denominations are beginning to adopt this type of stewardship education. It reflects credit upon the vision of those who originally introduced it in our denomination, and upon those who pioneered in the effort through many difficult years. This is another splendid opportunity for thorough preparation for and participation in the Stewardship Enlistment.

Blessings on You

In time of war the citizens of our country rendered a good stewardship, both on the front line and at the home base. In time of peace let the citizens of the Kingdom, which includes all His devoted children, render a good stewardship unto God, so that we will not have another war! May the rich blessings of a loving God be with you all in this time of great opportunity!

Our Proposed Union with the Congregational Christian Churches

DR. WILLIAM E. LAMPE

Early in 1941 an invitation came from the Commission on Interchurch Relations and Christian Unity of the Congregational Christian Churches to our Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches to meet for informal conversation regarding the possible union of the two denominations. A meeting was held March 18, 1941 and a second meeting October 13, 1941. Report was made to the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches and to the General Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church in the spring of 1942. The General Synod by a rising vote unanimously authorized our committee to continue its conversations with the Congregational Christian Commission.

During the next two years a number of joint meetings were held. The first provisional draft of the Basis of Union of the two Churches was published in March, 1943. It was widely distributed throughout the two Churches. The Joint Committee received many comments and suggestions, and in August, 1943, issued another provisional draft. In March, 1944, the Joint Committee made parallel recommendations to the congregations, Associations and Conferences, and the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches, and to the Synods and the General Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. At the same time it submitted the third provisional draft of the Basis of Union. Our Synods discussed the recommendations and 23 of them recorded their opinions regarding the proposals for union and reported them to the General Synod in 1944.

The recommendations of the Joint Committee were in essence a plan of "Procedure" for cultivating mutual acquaintance. Nearly all of the Synods which expressed themselves approved the "Procedure."

At the General Synod of 1944 the report of our Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches was presented and the report of the committee to which it had been referred was received. The following resolution was adopted: "Having reviewed the report of the Committee on Closer Relations of the Churches, the General Synod adopts the Plan of Procedure as set forth in the Basis of Union which has been submitted to the General Synod by the Committee on Closer Relations."

The General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches (corresponding to our General Synod) unanimously adopted the "Procedure" for union with our Church. The General Synod authorized our Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches to continue the negotiations.

During the intervening two years the three suggestions in the "Procedure" have been carried out at least in some degree: (1) promoting fellowship in areas where the two communions are both well represented, (2) organizing the sending of leaders of either denomination into areas where the other denomination is not numerically strong, and (3) aiding the congregations, Associations, Conferences, Synods, Boards and national agencies in such types of cooperative endeavor as will neither presuppose nor prejudice ultimate union between the denominations.

The fourth edition of the provisional draft of the Basis of Union was issued in October, 1944. A Primer of Union was published by the Joint Committee early in 1945. This pamphlet contains answers to many of the questions asked about the union, and many thousands of copies were distributed throughout the two denominations. It was printed in full in our Church papers and in the 1946 Year Book.

The Joint Committee made further changes in the provisional draft of the Basis of Union and published the Final Edition in September, 1945.

Keen interest in the proposed union was manifest at the meeting of our Synods in the spring of 1945. At almost every meeting there were present one or more representatives of the Congregational Christian Churches, and at many of the meetings of the Congregational Christian Associations and Conferences representatives of our Church were present. Many joint meetings, including those of Boards and agencies of the two Churches, were held.

By January of 1946 it became evident that there was a very strong desire on the part of both denominations that certain matters be given more attention and worked out more fully than had been done in the five editions of the provisional Basis of Union. On January 30, 1946, the Executive Committee of the Congregational Christian Churches expressed its judgment that "Before a vote be taken finally upon the proposed union by any congregation or other denominational unit sufficient time be taken to prepare a supplement to the present Basis of Union which, when completed, would be widely distributed and form part of the proposed plan of union which the regularly constituted bodies of both denominations (national, state, district, local) shall be asked to accept or reject.

"And that the vote taken at the meeting of the General Council in June, 1946, be not upon the matter of reference to the churches, etc., but upon the preparation of such a supplement to the present Basis of Union, which would include among other things:

"(a) Definition of relationships which are to exist between the missionary organizations of the denominations as to administration, finance and nomenclature.

"(b) Definition of the relationship which is to exist between these organizations and the General Synod.

"(c) Definition of the relationship between the Pension Boards of the two denominations and the relationship of these Boards to the General Synod.

"(d) Definition of the place and function of the Conferences and Associations on the one hand and of the Synods on the other, and the proposed relationship between them.

"(e) Provision for suitable denominational headquarters and suitable branches of the same.

"(f) Provision for means of amendment.

"(g) The preparation of such a supplement to be conducted by the organizations concerned (Boards, Annuity Fund, etc.) under the coordinating guidance of an able, practical committee to be selected by the Commission on Interchurch Relations and composed of persons of varying representative opinions among whom the members of that Commission may be named."

Our Administrative Committee on February 7th, 1946, met with our Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches. The joint group voted to recommend to the General Council that the proposed poll regarding union of our Church with the Congregational Christian Churches be not taken at the meetings of the Synods this spring. It further voted to recommend to the General Council that the planned joint meeting of our General Synod and the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches at Grinnell, Iowa, in June of this year be postponed, but that our Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches and representative delegates from our Church be sent to the Congregational Christian meeting at Grinnell. It also voted that our Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches should meet with the Congregational Christian Commission on Inter-Church Relations and Christian Unity to map out further procedure. The Administrative Committee recommended to the General Council that our Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches be authorized to associate with itself additional persons who, with similar representatives of the Congregational Christian Churches, shall study more carefully the Basis of Union.

The General Council at its annual meeting adopted all of the recommendations. It also made provision for the addition of five members to our Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches, to correspond more nearly with the membership of the Congregational Christian Commission on Inter-Church Relations and Christian Unity.

The General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches met at Grinnell, Iowa, June 18-25, 1946. Twenty-one representatives of our Church met with them and participated in the discussion regarding the proposed union. By a vote of 474 for, and four against, their General Council accepted the entire report of its Commission. It then voted to affirm its will to have the conversations looking toward union go forward without undue delay, and urged the appropriate officers of the Council and the Boards to consider the problems involved and seek their solutions with earnestness and dispatch.

It authorized the Executive Committee to call a special meeting of the General Council in 1947 if the negotiations with the Evangelical and Reformed Church warrant such actions.

It recommended that the Executive Committee, the Committee on Interchurch Relations, and the state Conference officers arrange for as thorough and widespread an acquaintance as possible between ministers of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and the Congregational Christian Churches.

In our Church all actions taken by the General Council or by the Joint Committee and its associates, and all other developments, are promptly announced through the Church papers and in formal reports.

Facing the Facts

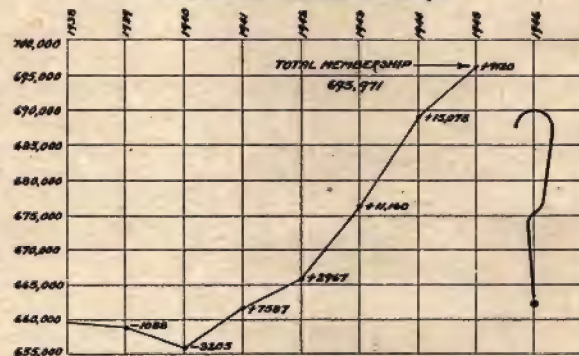

Rev. Fred C. Schweinfurth

Executive Secretary, Department of Evangelism

Statistics can be as dry as dust. Again, they can be as startling and stimulating as a gripping short story. The latter is true as we study the charts and analyze the tabulations in an effort to discover the strong and weak spots in the growth of our but with 1940 a steady, although not phenomenal upward trend in growth has taken place. In five years we have increased our total membership by 45,912, an average of 9185 per year, or by 6.9% since the beginning of 1940. In other words, it took approximately

Church through the past years. Of course, figures do not always give an accurate gauge of the spiritual status of a Church, but they do evidence an evangelistic potential and outreach on the part of a denomination. On the whole, the record is one of which we 13 members plus a pastor, working over a period of five years, to win one new member, and the majority of those added to the Church came through the channels of the confirmation class.

In Chart II we have a breakdown of

cannot be justly proud, but which leaves much room for improvement.

Chart I gives us a picture of membership growth since the close of the year 1938 through 1945. In 1938, the total membership was 659,659. The next two years were marked by losses,

Chart I, showing the highs and lows of net accessions. In 1940 we were startled by the decline in membership during the previous two years, and a special effort that year lifted us out of the depths. But we eased up again in 1942, having a net ratio for that year of one new member per congregation. The next two years witnessed the inauguration of the Crusade for Christ (1943-44). The net accessions for those years validate the program. But, alas, the steady pull evidently got us, with the result that the net gain in 1945 is less than 70% of the net gain in 1944.

In Chart III we have a graphic portrayal of our gains and losses in 1945. In comparing the accessions of 1945 with those of 1944 we note the following decreases: a) by confirmation, 259 less; b) by transfer, 502 less; c) by renewal of profession, 2425 less. Comparing the losses of 1945 with 1944 we get the following: a) by death, 227 less; b) by transfer, 12 less; c) by effort by Synods in detail. Some Synods have records which give evidence of evangelistic aggressiveness, others of evangelistic apathy. In which of these two categories is your Synod?

Taking the 34 Synods into the total picture, we note that while in 1944 two Synods suffered decreases in membership, in 1945 every Synod showed a net gain. Evidently some congregations were out to win new converts to Christ and His Church. The painful facts are that 455 congregations (1/6 of our congregations) did not have one single accession (by confirmation, transfer, or renewal) in 1945; and that 1253 congregations (a little less than 1/2 of our total number) showed no net gain in 1945. Breaking down these erasure 2730 MORE. The losses by erasure, now totaling 121,698 since 1938, is a denominational malady, calling for a more effective method of assimilation and conservation of the membership. The reactivating of these people who were once members of the Church is a major responsibility.

Our evangelistic ratio on total accession has jumped two points over that of 1944, and on net accessions by 35½. In other words, it took 76 members plus a pastor to gain a net increase of one new member in 1945. This is not always indicative of a lack of an evangelistic spirit and thrust. Losses incurred frequently offset whatever gains are made. But the whole story is not one of an aggressive, constructive endeavor.

Chart IV, on the opposite page, tells the complete story of our evangelistic figures further, the startling revelation is that in the first instance 112,385 church members were entirely inactive in winning others, while in the second instance 309,491 members did not increase the membership roll of their churches by one new recruit for Christ. Is there a need and place for evangelism in our Church? Yes! What we want above all else is an evangelistic spirit which will inevitably produce MORE and BETTER CHRISTIANS. The Church grows by accession as well as by character. We want both quantitative and qualitative Christians. To that end let us carry on a continuing and sustained evangelistic emphasis and endeavor. Perhaps 1946 and the ensuing years will have a more pleasing statistical story to tell us.

Form for Bequest

Persons desiring to remember the Church or any of its Boards, institutions or agencies in their last will and testament are advised to secure the services of a lawyer or of some other qualified person. This is advisable because of the variation in State laws governing bequests to religious and charitable agencies, especially with reference to the time that must elapse between the date of the will and the death of the testator.

The greatest care should be exercised so that all bequests are made in the manner prescribed by law. The corporate names of the Church, Boards or agencies as given in this book should be used. The following form for general bequests is suggested:

"I hereby give and bequeath to the Evangelical and Reformed Church, of which Mr. F. A. Keck, St. Louis, Mo., is the treasurer, for the use of (insert here the particular cause which it is desired shall receive the bequest, or if no preference is expressed this clause in the will may be omitted) the sum of Dollars, and the receipt of the Treasurer thereof shall be sufficient discharge for my Executor."

Our Chaplains

In the summer of 1945 our Church had a few more than one hundred chaplains in active service in the Army and Navy. Three chaplains had died and a few had withdrawn from the service.

When hostilities ceased the Army and Navy Departments requested that chaplains remain in the service longer than enlisted men, so that spiritual ministration to the armed forces might continue until the very last.

It should be remembered that not one chaplain was drafted. All were volunteers. In our own Church a number of ministers applied who, for physical or other good reasons, did not receive appointments. Some of these men were greatly disappointed.

Our Church did not fill its official quota of chaplains, but our quota was larger than it should have been, due to governmental errors growing out of records of our membership at the time of our union in 1934. Even on the basis of the revised quotas toward the close of the war, the number of Evangelical and Reformed chaplains was comparatively small.

As a matter of fact no religious group, Protestant, Catholic or Jewish, reached its designated quota. The Protestant Churches, nevertheless, made a magnificent record. On May 1, 1945, they had on active duty 5,542 chaplains, or 69% of the total number of chaplains in the Army. There was about the same percentage of Protestant chaplains in the Navy, the number totaling nearly three thousand.

By the end of August, 1946, less than thirty of our Evangelical and Reformed chaplains were still in the service. Eight of these were then in the regular Army or regular Navy, and several others had been assigned temporarily to special service. Of the more than seventy chaplains who had been separated from the service by September 1, 1946, nearly all were called to pastorates or other denominational work quite promptly. Several of those in the Army and four of those in the Navy were taking refresher courses or were engaged in longer periods of study, and one was temporarily with the Veterans' Administration. As of the latter date twelve Army chaplains and six Navy chaplains had not yet been placed. This is really remarkable in view of the fact that our theological seminaries, by accelerating their programs, graduated three classes within two years, giving the Church sixty ministers more than in normal times. It is true, however, that we have had an abnormally large number of vacancies, and that the Synodical Councils, the President of the Church and the Committee on Chaplains have all given our returning chaplains every possible consideration and help.

There are still nearly two million men in the Army and Navy, and chaplains are needed to minister to them. Indeed, there will be a considerable demand for chaplains for some years to come.

Not only our Church but other religious bodies also have cause to feel proud of the work done by the chaplains. General Eisenhower, Chief of Staff of the Army, recently told the General Commission on Army and Navy Chaplains that a good chaplain is worth his weight in gold. At the same time Admiral Nimitz, Chief of Naval Operations, commended the chaplains most highly and appealed for a continuous supply of them. The Secretaries of War and Navy have repeatedly expressed highest praise.

Our chaplains may look back with justifiable pride and satisfaction to service rendered in time of war. During the years that lie ahead they will be zealous in helping to build a brighter, better world in which peace and brotherhood shall reign.

Total U. S., 1944

These statistics are furnished by national officers of religious bodies, members of the United Stewardship Council. Budget Benevolence includes contributions to the missionary budgets of the reporting bodies. Denominational Benevolence includes gifts to any benevolence in the denomination whether or not it is included in the national denominational budget. The totals for columns C, D, E, F, G, H, are all larger than for the preceding year. The gifts per member are also larger for K, L, M, and N.

Life Service Enlistment and Students for the Ministry

The report of the Committee on Life Enlistment which appeared on page 10 of the 1946 Blue Book to the Synods contained the following significant statements: "The names and addresses of 1045 boys and 125 girls are now on the list of prospective candidates for full-time Christian service. All of these young people have received not fewer than two letters and two printed folders. Efforts are being exerted to enlist the Committees on Christian Education of the Synods in helping this committee to develop the interest which has been aroused. It is also planned to keep in close touch with the pastors of the Church in order that the names of other potential candidates may be added."

The Committee prepared and mailed to 363 pastors of our larger congregations a questionnaire to secure better information upon the opportunities for full-time Christian service in those churches, especially for women. Approximately one hundred pastors reported either that they were eager to employ a trained woman worker at once or that they were in dire need of assistance and hoped to make the necessary arrangements in the future. For the most part the real need expressed was for women trained for pastoral and secretarial work and in the area of religious education. To help meet this need, two of our seminaries and at least three of our Church related colleges have voted to include courses in their curricula designed to equip both men and women for full-time Christian life service in our churches.

The need for strong pastoral leadership throughout the Church continues urgent. There are approximately 250 vacant congregations in the Church at any given time. The annual loss of ministers through death and other natural causes is heavy. Our rapidly expanding denominational program has been exacting a heavy toll from our ordained ministers to man the newly created offices either as executives or as departmental leaders. The accelerated programs in our educational institutions have aided materially, in that approximately sixty seminarians became available for full-time service earlier than would have been possible otherwise. The hope is indulged by our Church leaders that this quickening may be prophetic of a new urge and vision among the potential candidates for full-time Christian life service.

In keeping with all this and in an effort to make the Church still more life-service conscious, the Committee on Statistics has for the past two years included the rubric "Students for the Ministry" in the congregational statistical report blank. The summary of these reports shows 478 ministerial candidates in our denominational and other institutions. It is a known fact that included in this total are a number of high school and even junior high school pupils, and most of them are probably on the list of the 1170 names now in the keeping of the Life Enlistment Committee. Not all of them are officially under the care of the Synods at present. A summary by Synods of the reported number of students for the ministry follows:

New Board Executives

Dr. Nace

Rev. I. George Nace, D.D., assumed the duties of General Secretary of the Board of National Missions on January 1, 1946. He succeeded Dr. J. J. Braun, who has returned to the pastorate. Dr. Nace is administering the duties of his office from the headquarters at 1720 Chouteau Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

A graduate of Franklin & Marshall College and the Theological Seminary at Lancaster, Pa., he has filled many responsible positions since his ordination. Uniquely, he was at various times both a home missionary and a foreign missionary. He served in the Japanese Mission from 1920 to 1933. Returning to this country because of a health situation, he assumed the pastorate of St. John's Church, Tillamook, Oregon, from which position he was called into interdenominational work as the Executive Secretary of the Oregon State Council of Churches and the Portland Council of Churches. He served in this capacity for seven years, during which period the work and influence of the Council were trebled as a staff of about forty collaborators guided the churches in their religious, social and civic programs.

Because of his consecration and organizational ability, the attention of the Board of National Missions was drawn to Dr. Nace, who accepted its subsequent challenge to the position of General Secretary. He was installed in connection with the annual meeting of the Board held at Lancaster, Pa., in June of 1946. Associated with him as regional secretaries are Rev. H. R. Gebhardt, Dr. Ralph S. Weller, Dr. Alex. Toth and Rev. Paul Jueling. The Church has already expressed full confidence in his leadership, and promises its hearty cooperation.

Dr. Sheeder

Rev. Franklin I. Sheeder, D.D., was elected Executive Secretary of the Board of Christian Education and Publication in the spring of 1946. He succeeded Dr. Alfred N. Sayres, who is now a member of the faculty of the Theological Seminary at Lancaster, Pa. Dr. Sheeder was installed into his new office at the Third National Conference on Christian Education at Lakeside, Ohio, in June, and assumed his new duties on July 1, 1946, with offices in the Schaff Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dr. Sheeder is an ordained minister of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. Keenly interested in all forms of Kingdom building and a recognized leader in religious, educational and civic projects for many years, his native endowments and rich experience give every promise of a sane and strong leadership. In addition to several active pastorates, he has since 1925 been associated with Ursinus College, where he served successively as assistant to the president, as teacher and head of the Department of Religion, and in 1930 was appointed Registrar, the first person in the history of the college to hold that office. He continued in this capacity until July 1, 1946.

Dr. Sheeder is no stranger to certain responsibilities of his new office. For a number of years he, together with Mrs. Sheeder, served in connection with the work of the summer camps and conferences. This phase of Kingdom building continues to occupy a large place in the plans and program of Dr. Sheeder's Board. The Executive Secretary and a growing staff of departmental leaders are addressing themselves to their varied tasks with diligence and consecration.

Register of Ministers

As of September 25, 1946

The following list gives the name, post-office address, the place of theological preparation and the year of ordination (or licensure, if not ordained) of every minister of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. It contains, as nearly as possible all changes of addresses to date shown above. The Constitution of our Church and the actions of our judicatories make the Secretary of the Church responsible for all records of our ministers and congregations. That this register may be correct, every minister changing his address shall notify W. S. Kerschner, Statistician, Office of the Secretary, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa.

Locations of Churches

The location of every congregation of the Church is listed. Where the street location is missing that information was not reported on the statistical blank.

The name of each congregation is exactly as reported by the pastor. It is presumed that this is as the congregation is designated in its charter. For example, we find Saint John, Saint Johns, and St. John's.

Please send notes of any errors immediately to W. S. Kerschner, Statistician, Office of the Secretary.

The surname and initials of the pastor appear after the name and address of each church. Reference to city, town, or state in the "Register of Ministers" will further establish identity. The title "Rev." and all degrees are omitted from this section.

Abbreviations: mi, miles; nr, near; N, north; E, east; S, south; W, west.

SYNODS OF THE EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH

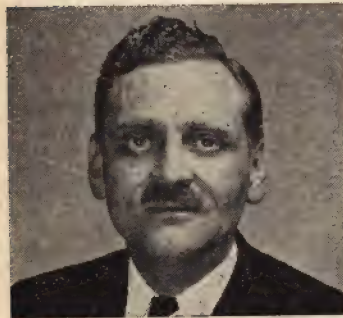

SYNODS IN PENNSYLVANIA

New Presidents of Synods

FOUR of the ten new presidents whose pictures are here presented were elected for two-year terms at the annual meetings in 1946. Of the remaining six, five were elected to complete the unexpired terms of their predecessors who moved beyond the bounds of their Synods, and one was elected to succeed a president who was obliged to relinquish his office because of ill health. All of these newly elected presidents are outstanding pastors in their respective Synods. Their complete addresses may be found in the Register of Ministers, and the Rosters indicate the extent of their jurisdiction.

Only ordained ministers are eligible for the office of President. They shall have been ministers of the Church for not less than five years, and members of their Synod for at least three years. The term of office shall be two years. After two full terms of office they shall not be eligible to succeed themselves. The duties and prerogatives of a President are outlined in Article I, Section 58 of the By-Laws.

Rosters of the Synods

These Rosters are furnished by the Secretary of the Church, Dr. William E. Lampe, and have been corrected to September 25, 1946. Except for the latest changes, they have been approved by the presidents of the Synods. All changes of address or in the records of ministers and congregations must be sent to the secretary of the Church (By-Laws, Sec. 87f).

Designations of Ministers without Charge

Ch—Chaplains in the Army and Navy
D—Those in denominational work—officers, secretaries, editors, presidents and professors of educational institutions, superintendents of benevolent institutions, of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

E—Emeriti, retired or disabled
G—In Christian service, but outside the Evangelical and Reformed Church
I—Inactive, in secular work
L—Licentiates
M—Missionaries abroad

An asterisk (*) before the name of a minister or a congregation indicates that that minister or that congregation has not yet been received into full membership in our Church.

Statistical Tables of the Congregations

For the Year Ending December 31, 1945

The statistics of the congregations by synods found on the following pages are those reported to the office of the Secretary of the Church by the pastors or proper officials in the local congregations. The name of the pastor given is not always that of the person preparing the report. Because it was necessary to prepare the printer's copy of these tabulations late in July it was impossible to record the many later changes in pastorates. Many of the more recent changes are listed in the Locations of Churches and especially in the official Rosters of the Synods.

There are two noteworthy features in connection with this year's reports. Only fifty-nine of our more than 2800 congregations failed to submit a report, as compared with sixty-two last year and one hundred and two the previous year; also, so spontaneous was the response that the last report was received on May 22 as compared with July 1 last year. Twenty synods again had perfect records. Given in the order in which they attained the 100% goal, they are as follows: Northeast Ohio, Mercersburg, Lancaster, Philadelphia, Lehigh, Southern, East Pennsylvania, Southeast Ohio, Potomac, North Illinois, West New York, Pacific Northwest, South Illinois, South Indiana, Reading, Southwest Ohio, New York, Northern, Northwest Ohio and Susquehanna. The fifty-nine non-reporting congregations are distributed among the synods as follows: California, 3; Central Pennsylvania, 2; Dakota, 28; Iowa, 5; Magyar, 3; Michigan-Indiana, 3; Missouri Valley, 5; Nebraska, 3; Pittsburgh, 2, and Kansas City, North Wisconsin, Rocky Mountain, South Wisconsin and Texas each one. Of the fifty-nine not reporting, thirty-six were either vacant or supplied, and twenty-three had full-time pastors. Several of the latter have not submitted a report for three years or more!

The suggestion is offered and the challenge issued that all 1946 statistical reports be mailed to the office of the Secretary of the Church by the first day of Lent, February 19, 1947.

WEST NEW YORK SYNOD

"It Takes a Lot of Running to Stay in the Same Place!"

Alice's experience in Wonderland serves to point a moral. Any institution with a glorious history might easily sit down and live off its past.

When an institution has enjoyed 229 years of distinguished service to ministers and their families it might be inclined to rest on its laurels. But THE FUND deliberately sets its face toward the future. It searches out new ways to serve the present age; seeks to equip itself more adequately to serve the forward-looking ministry of today.

You can address your inquiries with confidence to

THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

LANCASTER, PENNSYLVANIA

This School of Theology, the oldest theological institution of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, was founded in 1825. Its present faculty consists of six Professors and three Instructors. The Swander, the McCauley, and the David B. Schneder Foundations provide annual courses of lectures.

In September 1946 the Seminary abandoned the accelerated program and returned to the two semester plan, beginning, respectively, in September and February. In addition to the required work in the six departments, courses are offered in Christian Education, Field Work, Rural Church Problems, History and Theory of Missions, History and Comparative Study of Religion, and Church Music. Required and elective courses lead to the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. Daily worship in Santee Chapel, with pipe organ under the direction of a Fellow of the American Guild of Organists.

No charge for tuition. Rooms and board in Richards Hall and Dietz Hall at moderate rates.

Yes, the Name Is New —

But the address is the same, and the Home is the same loving Christian Home that has given aid to needy children for eighty-eight years.

BUT — the building is old. Since 1877 it has stood the test of time and the elements. We are fostering an enlargement and remodeling program. We have a splendid beginning, but much is STILL NEEDED to complete the program.

HELP US! — Talk to your friends —

Give in memory of a loved one —

Give in gratitude for your gifts from God —
Thereby you help a child. Show by your love to others what God means to you.

All branches of our work are understaffed. We need workers who understand and love children. Help us to fill our ranks. Come for an interview, or write us.

Bethany Orphans' Home

WOMELSDORF, PENNSYLVANIA
Rev. R. S. Vandevere, Superintendent

Bethany children are happy and contented. Contentment follows perfect coordination of child aspirations and manager's sympathetic understanding.

Bethany is proud of and grateful for its beautiful and healthful natural setting. But we are far more proud when we can boast of a staff of employees who can make our children truly happy in their adopted Home. When our children rejoice in the life experiences of Bethany then are we confident that we are attaining the acme of administrative ideals.

We are grateful to the members of our Evangelical and Reformed Church for the splendid support they have rendered our Home. Bethany needs and appreciates the prayers and goodwill of our many friends.

In your daily walk, enlist a new friend for Bethany.

EVANGELICAL HOME FOR CHILDREN AND AGED

"51 Years of Christian Welfare to Children and Aged"

Serving the total needs of Children—providing both institutional and foster home care for them under the Christian leadership of a capable and sympathetic staff. Our two-fold program includes also Christian care of the Church-related Aged.

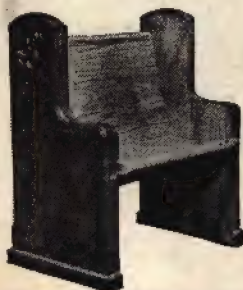

The Home is licensed by the State, and the program indorsed by authorities in the field of Social Welfare.

Because of the love and loyalty churches and friends have shown, we have successfully completed 51 years of Christian Service. The past is but a challenge to a still greater future. Bequests, legacies, memorials and special gifts can enrich otherwise unfortunate lives. Remember departed loved ones by remembering the little ones and the aged at Bensenville.

Ring Church Bells the easy VERDIN "PUSH-BUTTON" WAY

It's the modern practical way adopted by hundreds of churches. A great convenience that saves time and steps. Pastors in every part of U. S. recommend VERDIN, for accuracy, dependability and trouble-free service. Some churches have had VERDIN ringers in operation for more than twenty years.

Electric keyboard control for playing chimes. Your present bells can be used. The cost is reasonable. Write for free catalog.

Our aim: A HOME, NOT AN INSTITUTION, where otherwise homeless children may grow up into fine Christian men and women, ready to take their places in the world.

New living quarters for our boys and girls have become an absolute necessity. Our present buildings are very old, and dangerous for housing children because of the fire hazard. If even one of these innocent children was killed or injured by fire, we would have only ourselves to blame. We must act BEFORE disaster strikes. You will want to help with this worthy project. The Lord will bless you for it. There is nothing finer than to establish a living memorial; a memorial that will live on in the life of a child developing into a man or woman. Be the gift large or small, it will be appreciated. Make checks payable to THE FORT WAYNE CHILDREN'S HOME.

Let CARILLONIC BELLS

ILLUMINATE HONORED SERVICE NAMES ON A
MANUSCRIPT OF MUSIC FOR ALL TO HEAR

In every city, town and village, there are names newly wreathed with honor and heroism.

Let those names be heard in your community, let them be remembered as days turn into years, through the noble, glowing tones of Carillonic Bells. Ringing in remembrance, Carillonic Bells speak, as no other tribute can—raise in cresting waves of music an abiding message of faith and commemoration.

Schulmerich Carillonic Bells are the proudest and finest choice for such a purpose. Their richness of tone, their clear modulations are unequalled—the supreme results of more than two decades of electronic engineering and research. Their construction is compact, they are convenient to install, requiring no additional structure—moderate in cost.

If you would like to commemorate with Carillonic Bells those beloved in your community, we shall be glad to send a brochure giving complete details. Please address Dept. YER.

MUTUAL FIRE & STORM INSURANCE COMPANY

308 No. Third Street

Burlington, Iowa

During the month of November 1945 the Members of our Company held a meeting in the Home Office and in that meeting changed our Association to a Company. Since that day our company has become NON-ASSESSABLE. This company was organized 50 years ago to serve Evangelical & Reformed folks. It has faithfully performed this duty during that time.

The Company writes insurance on Churches, Hospitals, Orphanages, Seminaries, Colleges, Pastors' Household Goods and Personal Effects; also the Household Goods and Personal Effects of Pastors' Widows, Missionaries, Commissioned Lay-Workers and the Members of the Congregations.

Insurance carried in our Company has many advantages. All of our policies run for a term of five years on an annual premium basis. This plan not only makes it easier to pay the premiums, but has other advantages as well. No carrying charge on our policies.

The Pastors' Household Goods and Personal Effects are always insured, except while in transit. Items of clothing, books, furniture and such items as a pastor may have in the church office are automatically insured without a specific endorsement on the policy.

Our Company writes Fire, Windstorm and Hall insurance. Where we have the assurance that all policies covering the same risk have the Extended Coverage Endorsement attached and the assured carries equal amounts of Fire and Storm insurance we will be glad to attach the Extended Coverage Clause to our policy. This Endorsement gives protection for additional hazards which the ordinary fire and windstorm policy does not provide.

The Company now operates under a Perpetual Charter.

All inquiries will be cheerfully answered.

All policy holders should take a careful inventory of their holdings and then investigate their insurance so that it can be brought into line with present values of buildings and contents.
